Introduction

At Kingfields Solicitors, we have a vast amount of experience in conveyancing. Our expert conveyancing team and unique case management system enables us to provide fast and personalised service at a price that we consider very competitive and service that our clients find stress-free.

We are an ambitious property law firm serving the UK and international client.

Established in 2006, many of our clients today have been with us since the beginning. Why? Because we believe in taking a long-term view and time to understand the distinct demands that each client faces. To do that, we put ourselves in their shoes to see their issues the way they do. From the start, we had a clear vision: to provide the highest quality service at all times; to provide outstanding customer care, and to offer value for money. It's why we're completely transparent about our costs. There are no hidden extras.

We aspire to be a law firm where experience, knowledge and leading technologies enable our clients to go further. This allows us to provide a bespoke service that suits you.

Please contact us today to see how we can help you – +44 (0)345 459 0007.

Feedback from our Clients (these are just some of the feedback from our clients. For more testimonials, please visit our website <http://www.kingfields.co.uk/firm/testimonials/>).

"Sharon Stamper was excellent. She provided clear documentation to help our first purchase of a flat. Was timely with her email replies and always professional with her service. "

- Property Investor from Hong Kong – January 2021

"Sharan was extremely professional and ensured that I got the support that is required by any client. She further ensured that even though the buyers Solicitors were less professional than expected, the closure was done to the mutual satisfaction of both the parties."

- Property Investor from Zurich, Switzerland – July 2020

"Fozia was excellent throughout. This is the only person I had contact with and I could not be more satisfied. The level of client service and Fozia's technical expertise are a huge asset to your firm. I would not hesitate to recommend her to friends and colleagues. I have used a number of other firms in the past for more straightforward transactions and the experience in all cases has been inferior to Kingfields."

- Property Investor, Doha, Qatar – June 2018

"I was very impressed with Harjit and the team at Kingfields, I had a stress free sale of my property" - Property Investor, Berkshire – January 2019

"Words cannot express my gratitude for all the help you rendered and the great effort you specially put in to ensure that we complete the purchase of the property today. I heard from the seller that you even worked from home during the Easter holidays and goes to office early to get things going. I have been blessed and I am sure great blessings will always go your way to bless you too. Thank you so much."

- Property Investors, Singapore – May 2018

Our approach to fees

Residential property transaction can be difficult to price accurately as no two properties or transactions are the same, and it is often the case that something arises during the transaction which could not have been anticipated at the outset. We offer our clients a service appropriate to their transaction's requirements and this is reflected in our legal fee estimates.

Even though we have set out our indicative fees in this guide, we would encourage you always to contact us by phone on +44 (0) 0345 459 0007 or by email mail@kingfields.co.uk or via our website to discuss your Requirements, objectives and identify the nature and level of legal expertise that you require. We can then provide you with an instant tailored cost estimate and detailed explanation of what is and is not included within the estimate.

Scope of Work

What's involved?

The amount of time spent on each stage of the process will depend on the complexity of the transaction.

1. Complying with the Law Society and Government Regulations including client identification procedures.
2. Communicating with the solicitor and estate agent (if any) acting for the Seller.
3. Receiving the draft contract and other related legal documentation and reviewing those papers in detail.
4. Arranging the usual conveyancing searches. Typically these include the Local Authority Search, Water/Drainage Search, Environmental Search and any other searches that are deemed appropriate as part of our due diligence.
5. Investigating the title.
6. Preparing a list of questions to be put to the Seller arising out of the documentation provided.
7. Reviewing the replies to enquiries.
8. Reviewing the Local Authority Search, Water/Drainage Search, Environmental Search and any other searches undertaken.
9. Submitting standard and additional enquiries to be put to the Landlord/Managing Agents (if applicable for leasehold property).
10. Raising further enquiries if required.
11. Reviewing the Planning Permission and Building Regulations (if applicable).
12. Preparing a detailed professional Report on legal and associated matters affecting the property including the lease and financial arrangements (if applicable).
13. Negotiating the draft contract prepared by the Seller's solicitors and reporting on the contract terms.
14. Considering the Mortgage Lender's instructions, reporting relevant matters to the lender and ensuring compliance with its requirements.
15. Reporting on the contract and arranging for it to be signed and providing instructions for payment of the deposit.
16. Obtaining authority to exchange, exchanging contracts with the Seller's Solicitors and paying over the deposit.
17. Drafting the Land Registry Transfer Deed and carrying out pre-completion searches.
18. Reporting to the lender and requesting the mortgage funds in accordance with the lender's requirements (if applicable).
19. Preparing a Financial Statement, calculating the balance required to complete and providing instructions for payment of funds.
20. Completing HMRC return SDLT 1 (for payment of Stamp Duty Land Tax - assuming the calculations of the SDLT liabilities is straightforward), reporting on the return and arranging for it to be signed.
21. Obtaining the mortgage funds from the Lender (if applicable).
22. Sending the completion monies to the Seller's Solicitors on completion and finalising completion.
23. Obtaining the completion documents from the Seller's Solicitors.
24. Serving Notice of Transfer and Notice of Charge on the Landlord/Managing Agents (as applicable).
25. Submitting HMRC Return SDLT1 to HMRC.
26. Submitting the Land Registry application and advising all relevant parties when it has been completed.
27. Dealing with the Lender's post-completion requirements (if applicable).
28. Sending deeds to the lender or you (as appropriate).
29. All other incidental work not specifically mentioned herein.

What factors can affect the cost

The list below is not exhaustive, but it will give you an indication of matters that can affect the legal cost.

1. The transaction is Leasehold.
2. There are multiples titles or multiple properties involved.
3. The transaction involves any unregistered land.
4. We will be acting for the mortgage lender or dealing with a separate law firm who is representing the lender.
5. The lender's instructions to us and its requirements are non-standard.
6. The lender is offshore, or the lender is a bridging finance lender.
7. The transaction involves a purchase of part of a legal title.
8. The complexity of the legal title.
9. There is a short deadline for exchange and completion.
10. There is a delay in receiving your mortgage offer.
11. The lender requires us to provide a third party gift letter.
12. If the purchaser is a UK or an Offshore company.
13. We have to advise on a rental guarantee or tenancy agreement.
14. We have to deal with a Licence to Assign or Rent Deposit Deed (typical in some leasehold transactions).
15. There is a lease extensions associated with the purchase or purchase of freehold as part of the transaction.
16. The contract is conditional.
17. The contract is subject to tenancy.
18. Additional work is required to perfect a defect in the legal title or otherwise satisfy a mortgage valuers requirements.
19. Completion does not take place on the contractual completion date, or there is another breach of contract by either party.
20. The transaction does not move smoothly as there are unforeseen complications.
21. The other parties are not cooperative, and there is an unreasonable delay from third parties providing documents.
22. Indemnity policies are required.
23. Tax advice is required.
24. You are not providing us with instructions promptly.

How long will it take

The time frame of each transaction varies because we often have to rely on information and documents from other third parties involved, such as lender granting a mortgage, a valuer undertaking the valuation and the conveyancing search provider providing the search results from the Local Council. In our experience, it usually takes some six to eight weeks to exchange contracts on a typical straightforward purchase.

The completion date may be agreed by the parties at the outset and will be incorporated as a term of the contract on exchange. We would suggest allowing at least two weeks between exchange and completion.

The timing of the exchange may be affected by a number of different factors, which may include the availability of search results, mortgage finance and existence and extent of a chain of transactions.

We will let you know if there is likely to be a delay.
